The 51 PINE

From a strictly "girls school" to a co-ed one is an important step in the life of our college. As our pictures will demonstrate, our classes, customs, honors, and traditions have all expanded to offer pleasure and work to everyone here at V. S. C.

VALDOSTA STATE COLLEGE . . .

CONE

We on these pages invite you to turn now and take a glimpse into life in a new co-educational college—its Classes, Prides, Joys, Organizations, and Faculty.

DEDICATION . . .

"Everyone from the president to the yardmen can put on his best bib and tucker and we'll all have a wonderful time." This is perhaps the attitude most symbolic of our Miss Ivey. We of the Pine Cone wish to dedicate the Annual to her unfailing energy and never-ending enthusiasm for the customs and traditions of V. S. C., and her willingness to accept new problems as they come her way. Our 1951 Pine Cone . . . . . to

Yes, we do try to lead you and we certainly love you. Some of you have been with us four years and some less; nevertheless we love all of you. As years go by we take great pleasure in watching you grow, realizing that we, too, are helping you along the way. In years to come when you are gone we hope you will think back with pleasant thoughts. Well, all of them might not be pleasant, but we hope most of them will.

CLASS OFFICERS

A letter came not long ago for one of our number. It said, "College is a world apart from other worlds, and you will never find its like once you leave." Is it true that we are through? Through with school, perhaps, but only starting out really.

We sound sort of seriously inclined, but really, until we thought of leaving, we weren't. We suppose that the whole school considers our efforts at money making a big joke, but it took us on our Senior Trip. Our first success was the Senior Carnival with our stage show, which was presented twice. Then came our Christmas cards and rosters, Masquerade Ball, sponsoring the Emory Glee Club Concerts, and other methods that we used to beg money from all of you. Thanks, all of you.

This has been our year, all our "lasts," The Hanging of the Greens, Firelighting and the Festival and many others. We truly have many memories. . . Senior Hall for two years, Ashley and Converse Dorms, then our wonderful town students to add to our number, all have given us the pleasure and happiness of our past four years. Really, we hate to leave, yield our place to future Seniors, but can you really blame us for looking forward to our future, one bright with promise?

Our JUNIORS

Frolic, laughter, and song
Follow all their way along

Ruth Dinkins, Vice-President; Jackie Sikes, President; Joanne Gilmer, Secretary-Treasurer

CLASS OFFICERS

Juniors at last! We were on the last half of the journey toward our coveted degrees. With the new found dignity of our Senior College standing, we found that, whether we liked the idea or not, studying was definitely a prerequisite to graduation.

We started the year with a bang by sponsoring the first dance—"The Sock Hop," when for the first time we entered the dining hall in stocking feet. This was followed by the "Fascinatin' Face" contest, where we displayed pictures of our current heart throbs to gaping and, needless to say, appreciative spectators.

Then with winter came more feverish plans and last-minute preparations which resulted in the fun, the gaiety together with the almost sadness of that wonderful weekend, our first Junior-Senior Frolics.

Our Junior year is over now, and as we look back over it we remember not only the big things but the little day-by-day happenings which made it a never-to-be-forgotten year. Our "Junior Birdsmen," for example, and the genuine Scottish plaid, and the epidemic of itch. Next year we will be Seniors, and somehow we feel that if it is a better year for us it will have to be an extraordinarily good one.

Our SOPHOMORES

Masters of winds wherever they blow
Wiser than sages of long ago

Anne Camp, Secretary-Treasurer; Mary Virginia McDonald, Vice-President; Mary Anne Dykes, President.

CLASS OFFICERS

It is wonderful to be a Sophomore! It is a great experience to leave Converse for a hall with more privileges, more fun, and more studying, and to be close by when the mail comes, when meals are served, and when there is a special caller in the Rotunda. We did the invaluable service of delivering the mail every morning; we sponsored the "Magnolia Room" dance, and we decorated the Christmas tree.

Then came yards and yards of crepe paper, and a day of hammering, sweeping, and ladder-climbing. Then the lights were turned low, the music began, and we presented the sweetest dance of the year—that traditional and ever-sentimental Sweetheart Ball.

Now Senior College is before us, and although our class will no doubt be smaller, the spirit of the Sophomores of 1951 will still be there. We had our mischief, our fun; we had the thrill of having a class lower than we and of having someone to "rat," but we also had someone for which to set an example. We want them to say, "That was a good Sophomore Class before us. Let's try to be as good."

Our FRESHMEN

Adventure looms before their eyes
Everything one grand surprise

Charles Daniels, Treasurer; Marianne Cheatwood, President; Frances Chambers, Secretary; Glenn Dowling, Vice-President.

CLASS OFFICERS

We were speechless with excitement. Here we were at college. It seemed strange to find ourselves entering a college to work toward that infinite goal, a degree. Now as the year has passed and drifted quickly by, we, like all other classes, take time out to reminisce about the year that has passed by so enjoyably.

VSC was to be our home for nine months, nine new months of excitement. Let's see, just what was first? There was that big rush, Freshman Week, where we rushed and ran and took tests, Tests and TESTS. Then the upperclassmen arrived, classes started and we truly settled down. Rat Day was an ordeal seldom encountered in everyday life, and we really did not fit too well in our garb dreamed up by the Sports Council. But that night after Rat Court we had our first chance to show the school what we could do. Our party for the Uppers that night was a success. When the Christmas season came on we got up, oh, so early one Sunday and sang Carols in all the dorms, and Lo and behold, forsooth and zounds, we became English men and women for the Christmas Festival. Then finals came and went—and we went home for Santa Claus. When 1951 came and we returned, seasoned Freshmen, we started work on our formal and elected our sweetest one. Then Spring came with the May Day Festival. Now we have big plans for our Sophomore year, and thus ends our first year. Oh, be young and come to college; be patient and stay to go up to higher things. VSC, we loved you. We eagerly await our sophomore year.

Our ORGANIZATIONS

A puzzle of confusion, a mixed up affair,
Things that are loved and take lots of care

Mary Brand, Tom Crouch, Carl Sampey, Betty Buckner, Betty Waters

THE BIG FIVE

We above represent the five main organizations at V.S.C. There are many more to be found, all of them serving their purpose. We would like for you to thumb on in our PINE CONE and see your clubs and organizations as they are pictured for and by you.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

MARY BRAND
President

We represent the Women's Student Government Association. Our council is composed of the Class Presidents and elected members to the Student Council. We, as the governing group of the women on our campus, cooperate with the administration in making and carrying out our rules and regulations, thus making our home life at Valdosta State College more orderly and unified. Some may think of our organization as one without much humoneness. Still we strive now for a situation on our campus of clearer understanding, leading to happier college life with the interest of every student and faculty member at heart.

From the time of the Big Sister-Little Sister candle lighting service at the first of our Freshman year, every girl is a member of the Y.W.C.A. Under the leadership of the "Y" Cabinet, we receive inspirational guidance to help us with our daily problems. The impressive services such as morning watch, vespers, compline, Firelighting Service, the Hanging of the Greens, and Heart Sister week, all sponsored by the "Y," make it one of the most influential organizations on campus.

BETTY WATERS
President

We of the Sports Council represent a cross section of the student body. The Physical Education Department advises us and supplies the equipment with which we attempt to bring to this campus healthful living, pleasure and enjoyment all leading to a well proportioned college student. Our club conducts each year "Rat Day" as a test of good sportsmanship for Freshmen and Transfers. We are also found aiding the Physical Education staff with May Day. Our Sports Council is nearly always very busy, if not working then eating at one of our famous Tuesday night suppers, pictured on the opposite page. Keep your eye on us for our Aquacade in the Spring and a year of fun.

HONOR SOCIETIES

To be members of the Freshman and Senior Honor Societies, we have to maintain an average of "B." We try to promote high scholastic standards and ideals, and in the spring we are recognized at the annual Honors Day program. Our project every year is to sponsor the election for MARGA, the most all-around girl in each class, and MAC, the most all-around Co-ed.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB

During the year we had many projects of interest to us students of social science. We helped with the Red Cross Roll Call, and the Community Chest. In doing this work, our organization rendered a valuable service. At our regular monthly meetings we enjoyed talks given to us by outstanding and informative speakers. All of this served to stimulate our interest in the social sciences, which, after all, is our purpose as an organization. But ours was not all work. Our dance in January was one that we can all remember with pleasure.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

"Too many cooks spoil the broth." Thot's the old saying, but our broth is seldom spoiled. Our seoms are usually of the straightest type, too, French felled or flat. Our clothing clinic demonstrotes olong that line. Then, of course, our Foculty Teo is always one of our highlights of the year. On this page in our PINE CONE, you see the picture of our officers presenting the Flag of the United Nations to V.S.C. We sent delegotes to conferences in Milledgeville and Lo-Gronge. Really, you will have to coll us one of the most active clubs on campus. Do we sound a bit proud of our club Well, we "sorto" are!

VALDOSTA CLUB

We are proud to say that we are one of the biggest clubs on campus. Our membership is composed of all the Valdosta students, and our club purposes are to encourage our membership to participate in the various college activities, and to promote cooperation and understanding between day and dormitory students.

The party given for all new students, we thought, was a big success; and we are making plans to honor the graduating Seniors in the Spring.

OFFICERS

Barbara Howell, President; Helen Grace Ford, Costume Manager; Luceil Bauer, Secretary-Treasurer.

To dance is to live anew, to express with movement that which words cannot. Ah, to dance is to really live. To float away on a cloud of beauty, come dance with us. By dance, we do not mean just waltz or rumba, you see we do them all. At our "Olde English Feast" or the May Festival, you can see all our talents on display. Then the crowning climax, our recital in Spring. "May I have this dance?"

SOCK and BUSKIN CLUB

"All the world's a stage—" and we help to make it so! From the time of our first tryouts to the triumph of our Big Scene, we further dramatics on campus, ably assisted by our advisor and director, Miss Louise Sawyer. Fall Quarter we presented "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," a light-heated comedy, and the year was highlighted by our Christmas party, Winter Frolics, and our trip to Atlanta in the Spring.

PINE CONE staffs decorate for the Holly Hop at Christmas

FUN IN THE MAKING

Why sure, we look forward to the joys of college found in parties and carnivals, festivals and dances. These are really our first loves. We glided through the Holly Hop, ate through the carnival, and just loved the Olde English Feast. These, perhaps, are the things we remember best and those which gave us the most joy. Come on, hurry, let's eat, let's dance, let's have fun!!

OUR JEWELS

They tell us we are the pride of the school. Well, it was really nothing at all. Just everyday happenings, that's all. Like fun, we are the happiest ones on this campus. We are the Sweethearts, the Beauties, the Margas and MAC, most all-around girl and co-ed, those in Who's Who, the May Queen and Court and the Recitalists. Look at our pictures in this section to see the people who are wonderfully happy to be included in Our Pride.

AMONG STUDENTS

We have been selected for this honor by our faculty, administrative officers and representatives from each of our major campus organizations on the basis of character, scholarship, and leadership. Our biographies will appear in the publication of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Our certificates were awarded to us by Dr. Thaxton in a delightful surprising ceremony during the "Olde English Festival."
